About TIAC

Vision: To lead the Canadian Tourism industry to be the most competitive in the world.

Mission: To be the voice of Canada’s tourism industry and improve its global competitiveness as an international destination through leadership and advocacy.
Tourism was the first hit, hardest hit, and will be the last to recover.
To help the hardest-hit businesses pivot back to growth, we propose a new Canada Recovery Hiring Program, which will run from June to November and will make it easier for businesses to hire back laid-off workers or to bring on new ones.

Key Budget Take-Aways

“…we must punch our way out of the COVID recession. That means ensuring lost jobs are recovered as swiftly as possible, and that hard-hit businesses rebound quickly and are able to flourish.

It means providing support where COVID has struck hardest – to women and young people and low-wage workers, and to small and medium-sized businesses, especially in hospitality and tourism…”
Key Budget Take-Aways

To assist the sectors’ recovery, the government proposes to make available a package of tourism supports, totaling $1 billion over three years, starting in 2021-22.

- Support through regional development agencies to support major festivals and events.
- Funding through Canadian Heritage to support local festivals, community cultural events, outdoor theatre performances, heritage celebrations, local museums and sports events.
- Funding to Destination Canada for marketing campaigns to help Canadians and other visitors discover and explore the country.
- Establishing a Tourism Relief Fund administered by the regional development agencies. Support local tourism businesses in adapting their products and services to public health measures and other investments that will help them recover from the pandemic.
